CLYRO COMMUNITY COUNCIL

10/3/20

REPORT BY COUNTY CLLR JAMES GIBSON-WATT.

Gwernyfed High School & Community Sports Centre

No further news at present. Following the setting of the County Council's 2020/21 Budget last week the capital funding for the redevelopment of the school is still in the council's forward capital programme. The 'transformation' plans for the Powys schools network and post 16 learning in Powys are still being developed, so further changes to the design of the scheme are still very possible. Further delay is also inevitable.

Clyro C in W Primary School & Schools Funding

The Headteacher and Chair of Governor's meeting with the county council's finance officers has taken place, but the Headteacher has indicated to me that they met intransigence from the council. I think that the Governors are still not prepared to reduce the number of classes from 4 to 3, as this will compromise pupils' learning and produce class sizes above 30 in Key Stage 1. I fully support the Headteacher and Governors' position and will continue to liaise with the Headteacher to provide whatever support I can.

Powys County Council Education Service and Schools Transformation

As previously-reported, Wales's educational inspectorate, Estyn, reported on its inspection of Powys County Council's schools service in September 2019. Estyn's judgement was that the schools service was deficient in many respects. It also indicated that, although the council has enough money in its education budget to provide an effective schools system in the county, the current schools network is unsustainable as it is and outcomes for learners are being compromised. The rationale for change and the principles upon which that change will be based have been discussed and broad agreement reached with school head teachers and governing body chairs via a schools conference held in October last year. A 'Vision for Powys Schools' document is now subject to further engagement with Powys schools, learners and the public. The council's Cabinet will shortly consider actual proposals for change and how to implement the transformation process from the Schools Service next month. At that point we will all have something more tangible to work with. Papers covering the above are all available on the Powys CC website.

Planning & Housing

I asked housing officers some time ago to look in to the parking arrangements at the bungalows in Castle Estate, because it had been pointed out to me that there are no dropped kerbs there and quite a lot of space is wasted because of the shape of the current car park.

A new proposal has been worked up and consultation with the tenants on the plans took place in the Village Hall in February and on-site more recently. The new scheme now has broad agreement with tenants and will be implemented this spring.

Highways

Continuing heavy rain has caused intermittent flooding problems across the county's highways network. Storms Ciara and Dennis caused major flooding problems in Crickhowell and Builth Wells, as well as other parts of the county; and near-disaster in Glasbury, as the flood wall was on the brink of being over-topped during Storm Dennis. Serious deficiencies in the county council's emergency response system have been exposed and urgent work is needed to correct them. For example, despite my request that local county councillors be routinely provided with highways out-of-hours duty officers' mobile 'phone numbers, this has been refused. The Powys Careline number has proved to be almost useless during the storm periods, so for local members to be able to contact duty officers is very important in my view. Alas, senior officers and the council's Cabinet Member for Highways do not agree.

Powys County Council 2020/21 Budget – Welsh Lib Dem-Green Amendment defeated

The county council's 2020/21 Budget was passed by a narrow majority last week. The Council Tax increase will be 4.8%, after a last-minute climb-down by the Cabinet when it became clear that its proposal for a 5% increase would be defeated. My group's amendment to reduce the increase to 3.75%, based on reducing the Corporate Services budget by £1.5m, was defeated by 4 votes. Our two attempts to submit full alternative budgets that would have prevented further cuts to the library service, cultural venues and the planning service were rejected by the Chief Finance Officer on technical grounds, which she has the power to do.

The 2020/21 grant settlement from Welsh Government shows a significant increase on 2019/20 of 5.4% gross (about + £10m), although that includes funding for the teachers' pay and pensions settlement, which will reduce the net extra amount to about £5m. But this is the best 'settlement' Powys CC has received for many years and should have been used to prevent cuts to valued local facilities and services. It should also have allowed a lower-than-expected Council Tax rise, but unfortunately it was not to be.
